

IDO

Weaving Accessory

Ido (weaving accessories) were used by the Owina guild. Benin cloth can be finely woven from thin threads of cotton, or it may be woven with raffia and principally white or dyed red and indigo blue. When the Owina was founded by Oba Ohen, there were seven palace women who were weavers. Meanwhile, it was men who did the spinning.

